

My family's fire escape plan

Draw a floor plan of your home showing all interior and exterior doors, windows and staircases. If possible, show two ways out of every room as well as the location where your family will meet once they are out of the house.

